

a Answer the following questions about the story.

1. What happened today at the Wickam Town Hall?
2. Why did Mr. Bascomb call himself a native son of Wickam City?
3. Who was on stage with Mr. Bascomb? What was she wearing?
4. What are the main issues in the campaign, according to Mr. Bascomb?
5. Is unemployment rising or falling? What about the cost of government?
6. What is the state of the economy in Wickam City? Is it getting better or worse?
7. Why does Mr. Bascomb want to build a toy factory in City Park?
8. How much of the park does he want to use?
9. What are Mr. Jackson's feelings about the toy factory?
10. What will happen if the toy company doesn't get permission to use City Park?
11. What will happen if there is no new business in Wickam City?
12. How long has Mr. Bascomb known Otis Jackson? What's his opinion of him?
13. Why doesn't he think Otis should be mayor?
14. Why does Mr. Bascomb think the voters should elect him?

b Complete the following sentences.

Examples: If the weather is good, we'll go to the beach.
 If Otis becomes mayor, he'll save the park.

1. If it rains, _____
2. If Mr. Bascomb becomes mayor, _____
3. If Mabel goes to the market, _____
4. If we stay home, _____
5. If your friends come here, _____
6. If I have time, _____
7. If you work hard, _____
8. If Peter gets married, _____

c Change the following sentences using the relative pronoun where.

Examples: We used to shop at that market.

That's the market where we used to shop.

You lost your keys in that restaurant.

That's the restaurant where you lost your keys.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1. He met his girlfriend in that hotel. | 6. He used to work in that building. |
| 2. They got married in that church. | 7. We borrowed the money from that bank. |
| 3. She had her baby in that hospital. | 8. I saw the exhibition at that museum. |
| 4. They used to live on that street. | 9. We used to play football in that park. |
| 5. She used to study in that library. | |